Volume 5 Issue 2

FEBRUARY 2, 2025

Tempted (Convenient Opportunities)

Thousands, if not millions, of us are wondering and worried about how the recent executive orders signed by the president will affect us or someone we care about.

After pardoning or commuting sentences for those who stormed the Capital and interrupted the certification of his predecessor, including those found guilty of violent crimes, we're afraid that anything goes.

WELCOME MARIE WEAVER TO ASBURY UMC!!

"We are so happy to have our Guest Speaker with us this morning. Marie Weaver grew up in Mt. Morris, Michigan and is a life-long United Methodist. She has been a Certified Lay Servant and Lay Speaker since 2015".

The title of her sermon is "Recharging Your Battery" - Scripture referenced will be Isaiah 40:31 and Romans 12:2. She is using the Common English Bible (CEB) interpretation for these passages.

Individuals who immigrated to the U.S. and are here on temporary authority are understandably afraid and worried, especially those without approval or whose approval has expired. The promise of the largest deportation program in U.S. history can mean many things. Even those trying to help could be collateral damage.

Social media posts, news stories, and family conversations speculate about what will happen next. It's tempting to respond to each statement, news release, or interview with anxious and angry declarations. Many of us are afraid of what will happen next.

Bishop Mariann E. Budde admitted she was a little afraid while making a plea for mercy during her sermon following the inauguration. The Bishop spoke on behalf of everyone who is afraid of the ways the newly elected president has threatened to wield his power.

Power is tempting. Unchecked power is both dangerous and addictive. And an uncertain future is unsettling.

In the final chapters of our companion book, Lisa shares how she deals with uncertainty. In her new reality, she lives under the threat of the men in black. Lisa describes her new outlook to Alex: "Every morning, I wake up and thank God for seeing the sun, hearing the birds sing. I enjoy the rain, the flowers, the clouds in the sky. I love people. I appreciate life because it can be taken away from me at any minute."

Lisa finds her new outlook as a result of the obvious presence of the men in black but reminds Alex and us that this is how life is for all of us. "Our life can end any second, but we don't think about it. It seems to us that we will live forever. And that's because we don't see the people in black."

Alex and Lisa return to their former lives but not to their former selves. Both appreciate life's pleasures and value their time, realizing that each second is a gift from God.

Alex and Lisa spend time in uncomfortable circumstances only to emerge more alive. Scripture often uses the wilderness as a metaphor for such experiences. Sometimes, the characters end up there because of decisions they made, and other times, it happens for reasons they did not contribute to.

The wilderness is a common human experience although we each have our own unique view of it.

The wilderness is full of temptation. It is a place where our insecurities and past hurts are most easily exploited. On our best days, we may feel God's presence and resist opportunities to make decisions that could benefit us in the short term while doing irreparable harm.

God understands our dilemmas.

Upcoming Worship Series "Who Dunnit?"

During this year's Lent observance, we, along with several other area UM Churches, are participating in a series titled Who Dunnit? The people who wanted Jesus dead (see article). The series begins after Ash Wednesday on Sunday, March 9.

So, in preparation, our February series will focus on the friends of Jesus in our series titled Friends - the people who wanted Jesus alive.

Book Club News

We began 2025 with a worship series titled Seconds. Our last episode is on Sunday, January 26. As our companion book, we used The Price of a Second by Dr. Leonid Altshuler, a board-certified psychiatrist and writer, who writes under the pen name Leonid Alt. Our focus was on cherishing every moment of life and loving others.

We continue 2025 with a devotional book based on the first season of the TV Series The Chosen.

Our companion book for our new series is The Chosen: 40 Days with Jesus, which invites us to encounter Jesus the way his followers did.

The followers of Jesus in the Gospels have a lot in common with us. Like them, we also had a not-so-great "before." In the Gospels, we meet a brash fisherman, a pious religious leader, and a demon-possessed woman, just to mention a few. We also meet a tax collector who exploits others.

In all cases, Jesus saw beyond their brokenness and offered forgiveness. And this was just the beginning. Jesus transforms the lives of all who follow Him.

Upcoming Worship Series — “Who Dunit?”

In researching companion books, I checked in with friend and colleague Adam Hamilton at the Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City, Missouri (and Kansas). Although he hasn't written a book specifically on this topic, his church is already doing a series on it, which began in January. The series is based on the popular made-for-TV series Chosen. We will follow their lead but with our own version and schedule.

*We rejoice and delight in you.
We will praise your love more than wine. How right they are to adore you!*

Song of Songs 1:4

For a companion book, we'll use a 40-day devotional guide based on Chosen (see Book Club article). We'll begin reading these daily devotions on Monday, January 27, but our series doesn't start until February 9. We have a guest speaker on February 2, so we will celebrate communion on the second Sunday in February.

Here is the outline of our series:

Title	Sunday	Reading
Guest Preacher	February 2	Days 1-7
Mary	February 9	Days 8-14
Afraid	February 16	Days 15-21
Tbd	February 23	Days 22-28
Tbd	March 2	Days 29-35
Week of Ash Wednesday		Days 36-40

I pray that you will join us each Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m. We share our weekly episodes on Facebook and our YouTube channel, and we go live at 10:30 a.m. You can find these links, along with more information about us, or join our live broadcast on our website, FlintAsburyChurch.org.

“Feed Flint”

“Feed Flint”

A meal goes a long way for a senior living alone, a family struggling to make ends meet, or a child fearful of empty shelves at home. But for the residents of Flint who carry the effects of lead-tainted water, nutrition is critical. Feed Flint provides locally grown, chemical-free, fresh produce to residents living in and around Flint. And we're hoping that you can help us provide 10,000 meals this summer.

Feed Flint includes takeout meals, produce boxes with recipes, and home deliveries as part of our work to guide and support families in moving to sustainable abundance. The reality is that Michigan's food insecurity levels got worse during the COVID-19 pandemic, and this summer's recovery is leaving behind those at the most risk of having to miss meals.

Flint families continue to struggle with the ongoing effects of the water crisis.

We're bringing together the resources of the Asbury Community Development Corporation. This includes Asbury Farms, the South Flint Soup Kitchen, the Asbury Community Help Center, multiple food pantries, and our Sizzling Culture Mobile Food Trailer. Our plan is to care for our neighbors when they need it most. We accept all people as they are, and our doors are always open to anyone.

Asbury Farms provides locally grown produce used to create fabulous and nutritious meals. Our seed-to-table approach is community-based. This not only helps families make it through emergencies and crises. We help move families towards sustainable abundance.

Our Sizzling Culture program provides jobs and new skills to our city's youth. This includes year-round employment. Our staff and most of our volunteers come from the neighborhoods we support. We call this sustainable abundance because families move from need-based on scarcity to enough based on community-generated abundance.

Our work is also about food and justice. Our vision is a revitalized community where every resident can use their talents and passions for the common good, where children grow into active citizens. And all residents can enjoy safety, good health, and a culture that fosters life-long learning and satisfying lives. This summer, help us address food insecurity and strengthen Flint's budding local food system by supporting the Feed Flint campaign. Thank you for taking the time to see what we're doing and considering how you can help.

QUESTIONS FOR LIFE GROUPS:

1. Read Isaiah 40:31 and Romans 12:2. What does the text from Isaiah mean for you? What do you think Paul meant by conforming to the world in his letter to the church in Rome?
2. This week, read a short devotional each day. There are copies of the Upper Room in the cafe if you're not reading our companion book for our February Series, Friends. What are some of the things you learned from reading daily devotions?
3. How can your group members help you be more receptive to hearing and understanding the Word of God this week? Pray for each other to have the Holy Spirit bless you with more courage.

Luke tells us Jesus was led out into the wilderness by the Holy Spirit after He was baptized. The possibility of connections raises questions for most of us. Does baptism guarantee a wilderness experience will follow? Why would God lead us into such a place?

When Jesus returned from the Jordan River, He was filled with the Holy Spirit and was led into the wilderness, where the devil tempted him.

Luke 4:1-13

Matthew and Mark also tell us that God's Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness for forty days. Granted, most numbers found in scripture are not symbolic than actual counts. Regardless, Jesus was in the wilderness for a while. And while He was there, we are told the devil tried hard to convince Jesus to give into temptations the devil put in front of Him.

The devil knows power is tempting, and unchecked power is both dangerous and addictive. But so does Jesus.

The temptations confronting Jesus while in the wilderness began with an appeal to His physical vulnerabilities. Jesus was hungry and was tempted to address His hunger with the most immediate resources available.

Similarly, fitting in feels like a pang of physical desire, even more than our craving for our favorite treat. When we fulfill our need to belong by adapting to whatever role and belief offer acceptance, we open ourselves to attaching our allegiance to whatever helps us feel better about ourselves.

Notice how temptations work. In the wilderness, we're confronted by questions that haunt us. If you're really who you claim to be. If people really cared about you. If you really deserve to be loved.

Saving the more subtle temptation for last, Jesus' recognition of His own value is tested, with a question that most of us face in the wilderness. If you are precious to God, God will surely save you even from the most foolish mistakes.

Jesus knows His value to God, and He also knows your value.

In Sunday school when we asked our teachers, “Why did Jesus have to die?” they answered, “Jesus died to save us.”

Maybe they gave us that simplistic answer because it seemed safer than saying, “Jesus died because he challenged the powers of this world.”

In this series we will learn about the people who wanted Jesus dead, and we will discover that God is calling us still to resist the powers that conspired put Jesus on the cross.

A NOTE ON ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday presents an opportunity to remember that our struggle is not against flesh and blood. In this series we will focus on people who attempted to cut short the ministry of Jesus, but those people represented, in one way or another, the spiritual powers of this world that Jesus encountered in the wilderness. The people who tried to kill Jesus were consumed by selfish desires - the desire for comfort, the desire for power, the desire for glory. Matthew 4:1-11 reveals why so many people believed that Jesus had to die: he refused to play the game, and in doing so he exposed the players and threatened to topple the “winners.”
